BACKGROUND

The City of Dallas has a diverse Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender (LGBT) community and is committed to supporting visibility, dignity, and equity for all people in the community. Many of the residents, students, employees, and business owners within the City of Dallas who contribute to the enrichment of our city are part of the LGBT community.

June has become a symbolic month in which LGBT persons, and supporters, come together in various celebrations of pride. Mayor Eric Johnson has also declared the month of June as LGBT pride month.

The City Council believes it is important to communicate its support for diversity, inclusivity, equality, and respect in our city during pride month. The rainbow flag, also known as the LGBT pride flag or gay pride flag, has been used since the 1970s as a symbol of LGB pride and social movements.
